

TURRAMURRA HIGH SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY, STANDARDS AND CONDUCT POLICIES

Turrumurra High School supports student leadership and initiatives by holding "Unity Days" throughout the year. These days generally promote the consideration of important social messages (e.g. Harmony Day, awareness of inclusion and mental health) and also raise funds to support our chosen charities. Wearing casual clothing, in line with the theme for the day, help make these initiatives visible to the school community, making them stand out and hopefully provoking thought and the engagement of all students.

Wearing casual clothing to school, however, is a privilege for students and they have a responsibility to be mindful about what is worn. The dress code aims to ensure that students come to school in tidy, casual clothing, suitable for a learning and work environment, and ready to participate in their lessons.

The following applies to wearing casual clothing:

Students must either wear a short or long-sleeved blouse/T-shirt/polo or jumper. Shirts must be buttoned. Shoulders must be covered and exposed mid-sections are not allowed. Printed T-shirts must not display any inappropriate material. Sweaters and jackets of an
